(3) The victim was a participant in or consented to the defendant's conduct.

(4) The defendant was an accomplice in a murder committed by another person, and the defendant's participation was relatively minor.

(5) The defendant acted under the substantial domination of another person.

(6) The defendant's capacity to appreciate the criminality of the defendant's conduct or to conform that conduct to the requirements of law was substantially impaired as a result of mental disease or defect or of intoxication.

(7) The defendant was less than eighteen (18) years of age at the time the murder was committed.

(8) Any other circumstances appropriate for consideration.

(d) If the defendant was convicted of murder in a jury trial, the jury shall reconvene for the sentencing hearing. If the trial was to the court, or the judgment was entered on a guilty plea, the court alone shall conduct the sentencing hearing. The jury or the court may consider all the evidence introduced at the trial stage of the proceedings, together with new evidence presented at the sentencing hearing. The court shall instruct the jury concerning the statutory penalties for murder and any other offenses for which the defendant was convicted, the potential for consecutive or concurrent sentencing, and the availability of good time credit and clemency. The court shall instruct the jury that they must find at least one (1) aggravating circumstance beyond a reasonable doubt and shall provide a special verdict form for each aggravating circumstance alleged. The defendant may present any additional evidence relevant to:

(1) the aggravating circumstances alleged; or

(2) any of the mitigating circumstances listed in subsection (c).

(e) ~~Except~~ For a defendant sentenced after June 30, 2002, except as provided by IC 35-36-9, if the hearing is by jury, the jury shall recommend to the court whether the death penalty or life imprisonment without parole, or neither, should be imposed. The jury may recommend:

(1) the death penalty; or

(2) life imprisonment without parole;

only if it makes the findings described in subsection (k). ~~The court shall make the final determination of the sentence; after considering the jury's recommendation; and the sentence shall be based on the same standards that the jury was required to consider. The court is not bound by the jury's recommendation.~~ In making the final determination pronouncement of the sentence after receiving the jury's

1 recommendation, the court may receive evidence of the crime's impact
 2 on members of the victim's family. If the jury reaches a sentencing
 3 recommendation, the court shall sentence the defendant
 4 accordingly.

5 (f) If a jury is unable to agree on a sentence recommendation after 6 reasonable deliberations, the court shall discharge the jury and proceed
 7 as if the hearing had been to the court alone.

8 (g) If the hearing is to the court alone, except as provided by 9 IC 35-36-9, the court shall:

10 (1) sentence the defendant to death; or

11 (2) impose a term of life imprisonment without parole;
 12 only if it makes the findings described in subsection (k).

13 (h) If a court sentences a defendant to death, the court shall order
 14 the defendant's execution to be carried out not later than one (1) year
 15 and one (1) day after the date the defendant was convicted. The 16 supreme court has exclusive jurisdiction to stay the execution of a
 17 death sentence. If the supreme court stays the execution of a death
 18 sentence, the supreme court shall order a new date for the defendant's
 19 execution.

20 (i) If a person sentenced to death by a court files a petition for 21 post-conviction relief, the court, not later than ninety (90) days after the 22 date the petition is filed, shall set a date to hold a hearing to consider
 23 the petition. If a court does not, within the ninety (90) day period, set
 24 the date to hold the hearing to consider the petition, the court's failure
 25 to set the hearing date is not a basis for additional post-conviction
 26 relief. The attorney general shall answer the petition for post-conviction
 27 relief on behalf of the state. At the request of the attorney general, a 28 prosecuting attorney shall assist the attorney general. The court shall 29 enter written findings of fact and conclusions of law concerning the 30 petition not later than ninety (90) days after the date the hearing
 31 concludes. However, if the court determines that the petition is without 32 merit, the court may dismiss the petition within ninety (90) days
 33 without conducting a hearing under this subsection.

34 (j) A death sentence is subject to automatic review by the supreme 35 court. The review, which shall be heard under rules adopted by the 36 supreme court, shall be given priority over all other cases. The supreme 37 court's review must take into consideration all claims that the:

38 (1) conviction or sentence was in violation of the:

39 (A) Constitution of the State of Indiana; or

40 (B) Constitution of the United States;

41 (2) sentencing court was without jurisdiction to impose a
 42 sentence; and

43 (3) sentence:

44 (A) exceeds the maximum sentence authorized by law; or

45 (B) is otherwise erroneous.

46 If the supreme court cannot complete its review by the date set by the 47 sentencing court for the defendant's execution under subsection (h), the

1 supreme court shall stay the execution of the death sentence and set a
2 new date to carry out the defendant's execution.
3 (k) Before a sentence may be imposed under this section, the jury,
4 in a proceeding under subsection (e), or the court, in a proceeding
5 under subsection (g), must find that:
6 (1) the state has proved beyond a reasonable doubt that at least
7 one (1) of the aggravating circumstances listed in subsection (b)
8 exists; and
9 (2) any mitigating circumstances that exist are outweighed by the 10 aggravating circumstance or circumstances."
